THE POOR MAN'S DAY.

BY BENJAMIN ELLIOTT.

Sabbath holy!

Still thou art a welcome day!

When thou comest, earth and ocean,

Shout and sing, and praise thee, Lord!

Help the poor man's heart to pray.

Sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

Thou, that's the sun, wafted forth!

The London Times on the Peace.

The following discussion of the peace of

Villa Franca is from the London Times:

The abrupt and disappointing termination of the noble struggle has naturally filled both the covert and avowed enemies

of freedom and progress with unwelcome excitation. The friends of despotism and intolerance, the aristocratic partisans of the Holy See, the supporters of the holy alliance and the papal throne, are almost beside themselves with sudden joy.
